Subject: Fwd: Available for next appointment for Employment and Training Counseling

Hi Laurie and Randall,

Just wanted to check in, with an email.

I have not yet, heard from you about our next Employment and Training counseling appointment. Please, refer to the email I sent dated August 21, 2023. I am bringing to your attention that my BC transit bus pass is dated to expire on September, 9 2023.

Also, I am informing you that BC transit is denying me access to their buses (with my temporary wheelchair replacement). This is a new development since our last appointment. I have already informed you, on my last appointment that poor lice (aka police) took my personal items (including wheelchair and other) and have not yet returned them to me.

Please, arrange for medicab (aka medical cab transport) or other transportation options that you may have available.

Finally, I have not yet received any pickup email from you, for the phone that you counseled me on acquiring, for communicating with potential employers, workforce and department of labor career counselor's and career fair organizer's.

As always, looking forward to and making myself available for our next appointment, at your convenience.

Thanks again,

Rakesh.
